COURSE DETAILS

COURSE PROFILE

Cameron Park is a 416-acre oasis with towering trees, two rivers, breathtaking cliffs, playgrounds and a multi-use National Recreation Trail System. Since the William Cameron family donated the parkland more than 100 years ago, the park has been constantly abuzz with parties, festivals and sports. The Beast of the Brazos trail run features beautiful scenery and challenging rooty, dirt, and grass trails with 1200 feet of elevation for the 10M loop. The race follows a single-track trail with the start/finish line at the .
